The Master Plan

150-Day Phase-Wise Roadmap

Divide your 150 days into 5 distinct phases. Each phase has a clear goal — so you never feel lost.

Phase 1 Foundation Building Day 1–30

This phase focuses on building a strong foundation for each subject. Basics are clear, and shortcuts are introduced — ensuring a solid understanding of the fundamentals.

- English: Grammar rules, idioms, reading comprehension basics
- Legal Reasoning: Understand what Principle-Fact questions mean; read bare acts (IPC, CrPC overview)
- GK: Start a daily newspaper habit — The Hindu / Indian Express
- Logical Reasoning: Learn all reasoning types (syllogism, blood relations, coding-decoding)
- Quant: Brush up Class 10 Maths — percentages, ratios, averages, profit-loss
- Take 1 diagnostic mock test at end of Phase 1 to benchmark yourself

Phase 2 Deep Concept Mastery Day 31–70

Foundation is solid. Now, focus on mastering the harder portions of each subject. Cover all the concepts in depth.

- Legal Reasoning: Constitutional Law basics, Torts, Contracts, Criminal Law principles
- English: Inference-based RC, author's tone, para-jumbles, critical reasoning
- GK: Maintain a monthly current affairs compilation; start legal GK (important judgments)
- Logical Reasoning: Practice 30 questions daily — analytical reasoning sets
- Quant: Data Interpretation, Simple/Compound Interest, Time-Speed-Distance
- Weekly sectional tests — one per subject every week

Phase 3 Intensive Practice Day 71–100

This phase focuses on speed and accuracy. Timed practice is essential to simulate the exam environment and improve performance.

- 2 full-length mock tests per week (timed — exactly 120 minutes)
- Analyse every mock: subject-wise score, wrong answers, time per section

- Legal Reasoning: Solve 3 passage sets daily from previous year papers
- GK: Revise last 6 months current affairs; make short notes
- English: Target 85%+ accuracy in RC passages
- Identify your 2 weakest subjects — give them extra 30 min/day

Phase 4 Mock Test Marathon Day 101–135

☐☐ phase real exam ☐☐☐☐ ☐☐☐ ☐☐ ☐☐☐☐ ☐☐ alternate days full mock

- 3–4 full mock tests per week at exam-like conditions
- Maintain an error log — note why each wrong answer was wrong
- Revise static GK: Constitution, polity, Indian history, awards, summits
- Legal Reasoning: Cover previous 5 years CLAT papers completely
- Quant: Target 90%+ accuracy (only 10–14 questions — don't lose easy marks)
- Weekly rank analysis if using a test series

Phase 5 Revision & Final Polish Day 136–150

☐☐ ☐☐☐☐☐☐☐ ☐☐ ☐☐☐☐☐☐☐ ☐☐ ☐☐☐☐☐☐☐ strong ☐☐☐☐☐ Confidence

- Revise all your short notes and error logs
- 1–2 mock tests only (don't overload yourself)
- GK: Last-minute current affairs compilation (last 3 months)
- Re-read important legal principles — Constitution Articles, landmark cases
- Day 148–150: Rest, light revision, mental preparation
- Exam day strategy: attempt order, time allocation, guess policy

Daily Discipline

Ideal Daily Schedule (7–8 Hours)

Consistency beats intensity. 7 focused hours daily for 150 days = 1,050 hours of preparation — more than enough to crack CLAT.

Sample Day Schedule

 7:00 – 9:00 Subject Study Block 1 — Legal Reasoning (concept + 2 passage sets)

 9:30 – 11:30 Subject Study Block 2 — English Language (RC + Vocab)
 11:30 – 12:30 GK Revision — Monthly CA notes / Static GK
 12:30 – 2:00 Lunch + Rest
 2:00 – 3:30 Logical Reasoning — 30 questions timed practice
 3:30 – 4:30 Quantitative Techniques — 15 questions + DI sets

Critical Advice

Do's & Don'ts of CLAT Preparation

DO These Always

- Read newspaper daily without fail
- Maintain an error log after every mock
- Revise weekly — don't just move forward
- Solve CLAT past papers (2015–2024)
- Attempt full mocks in exam-like environment
- Sleep 7–8 hours — brain consolidates during sleep
- Make short notes for last-minute revision
- Track your weak areas every week

AVOID These Mistakes

- Don't skip Current Affairs even for 1 day
- Don't memorise law — understand and apply
- Don't attempt new topics in last 15 days
- Don't take 10+ mocks without analysing them
- Don't neglect English — it's 28+ questions
- Don't use outside legal knowledge in Legal Reasoning
- Don't panic if one mock score is low
- Don't guess randomly — -0.25 is real

Practice Questions

Sample CLAT-Style Questions

Legal Reasoning

Q1. Principle: A person is liable for negligence if they fail to take reasonable care that a reasonable person would take in similar circumstances.

Facts: Ramesh, a doctor, prescribed medicine without examining the patient. The patient suffered side effects. A qualified doctor would always examine before prescribing.

Which of the following is correct?

- A) Ramesh is not liable as he is a qualified doctor
- B) Ramesh is liable for negligence as he failed to act as a reasonable doctor would
- C) Ramesh is liable only if the patient dies
- D) Ramesh is not liable as prescribing is a medical judgment

Answer: B — The principle requires “reasonable care.” A reasonable doctor examines before prescribing. Ramesh failed this standard, hence liable.

Q2. Principle: An agreement made under coercion is voidable at the option of the party whose consent was so caused.

Facts: Seema signed a property transfer deed after her landlord threatened to evict her illegally. She later challenged the agreement in court.

- A) The agreement is void ab initio
- B) The agreement is valid as she signed it
- C) The agreement is voidable and Seema can challenge it
- D) Only the court can declare it void without Seema’s option

Answer: C — Coercion makes an agreement voidable — not automatically void. The aggrieved party (Seema) has the option to avoid it.

English Language (RC-based)

Q3. Passage: “The rule of law is the cornerstone of democratic governance. It implies that every citizen, regardless of status, is subject to the law equally. Without it, arbitrary power prevails and justice becomes a privilege, not a right.”

The author’s primary argument is that:

- A) Democracy is superior to all other forms of government
- B) Equal application of law is essential to prevent arbitrary exercise of power
- C) Justice should be a privilege for the elite
- D) Citizens are always subject to the will of the state

Answer: B — The passage argues that rule of law = equal application, preventing arbitrariness. Option B captures this central thesis accurately.

“The secret of getting ahead is getting started. The secret of getting started is breaking your complex overwhelming tasks into small manageable tasks, and then starting on the first one.”

— MARK TWAIN | Applicable to every CLAT aspirant

Exam Day

Exam Day Strategy

1▯

Start with Strength

Begin with English or Logical Reasoning to build confidence before Legal Reasoning.

Time Allocation

Legal: 35 min | GK: 25 min | English: 25 min | LR: 20 min | Quant: 15 min

Don't Get Stuck

Mark doubtful questions and move on. Never spend more than 90 seconds on one MCQ.

Negative Marking

Attempt only if you can eliminate at least 2 options. Random guessing = score drop.
