Why Current Affairs Can Make or Break Your CLAT Score

You can master Legal Reasoning and Logical Reasoning, but if your Current Affairs is weak, your rank will suffer." This isn't exaggeration. The Current Affairs including General Knowledge (GK) section carries roughly 25% weightage in CLAT — that's about28 to 35 questions out of 120 — and unlike Legal Reasoning or Quant, you cannot "reason" your way to the correct answer if you simply don't know the fact. Either you've read about it, or you haven't.

Why the CLAT Current Affairs Section Is Different From Other Exams

unlike UPSC or SSC background aspirant CLAT STUDENT should not — memoris every scheme, every appointment, every award ceremony. That approach doesn't work well for CLAT, and here's why.
CLAT's Current Affairs section is built around passage-based so read and learn current issue according to the exam's demand

What Time Window Should You Actually Prepare?

Since CLAT 2027 is scheduled for December 6, 2026, this means your highest-priority window is January 2026 through November 2026

The Core Categories You Must Master

1. Constitutional and Legal Developments (Highest Priority)

most important for CLAT aspirant so dont ignore this section otherwise it will affect your score

The Delimitation and Lok Sabha Expansion Story (2026)

Aspect	Details
Bills Introduced	Constitution (131st Amendment) Bill, 2026; Delimitation Bill, 2026; Union Territories Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2026
Date Introduced	April 16, 2026, in the Lok Sabha
Headline Proposal	Expand Lok Sabha from current strength of 543 (ceiling of 550) to a maximum of 850 seats — 815 from states, 35 from Union Territories
Delimitation Freeze	Proposed removal of the freeze in place since 1976 (based on 1971 population data), enabling fresh seat allocation using updated demographic data
Delimitation Commission	To be chaired by a sitting or former Supreme Court judge, working alongside the Election Commission, to redraw constituency boundaries

Link to Women's Reservation	Designed to pave the way for one-third women's reservation in Lok Sabha and state assemblies under the 106th Constitutional Amendment (Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam), 2023 — since that reservation was tied to delimitation after the first census post-Act
Current Status (Update)	The 131st Amendment Bill required a two-thirds special majority and was defeated in the Lok Sabha — the government secured only 298 of the required 352 votes. Following the defeat, the two companion bills (Delimitation Bill and UT Laws Amendment Bill) were also withdrawn

Note: As of the bill's defeat, the proposed Lok Sabha expansion and delimitation overhaul have not been enacted into law. This is a developing legislative story worth updating as things progress.

Why does this matter for CLAT? Because it touches multiple static-GK anchors simultaneously — Articles 81 and 82 of the Constitution, the history of the 1976 and 2002 delimitation freezes, the 106th Amendment, and federalism concerns around how southern states with lower population growth might be affected relative to northern states.

Build monthly notes, not daily ones.
If you are thinking that you will complete yearly compilation and will get score high in this section ....you are totaly wrong here so build monthly notes and track daily knowledge

Common CA mistake to be avoid

Starting too late
Not linking current affairs to static GK
Nglecting Revisions
Reading too many sources
Treating it like GK memorization

Resources

The hindu newspaper
PIB
Daily editorial
CLAT IQ's monthly current affairs compilation pair with their daily worksheet stay consistent ,focused and determined
Link every story back to a legal or constitutional anchor wherever possible
Practice with passages, not just facts. Reading current affairs and being able to answer a CLAT-style passage question on it are two different skills. Once you have a base of knowledge, start attempting current-affairs passages from mock tests regularly, and when you get something wrong, diagnose why — was it a factual gap, or did you misread what the passage was actually asking?

Disclaimer: Current affairs are constantly evolving. Always cross-check dates, bill status (introduced vs. passed vs. enforced), and judgment details against official sources such as PRS Legislative Research, the Supreme Court of India's website, or your preferred newspaper before finalising your notes.
